*Examples are for illustrative purposes only. To understand specific terms please consult a professional in short-term rentals. Examples are not a guarantee of rental performance. Short term rental terms or options are not provided by Garbett Homes and to be considered separate from the terms of sale on a Garbett Home at Azure Place. Interested parties need to comply with any city zoning, permitting or licensing requirements outside of their purchased home. Ensured compliance with city requirements for short term rentals is considered part of a homeowner or prospective homeowners' due diligence. Garbett Homes is not responsible for any changes either now or in the future with city requirements governing short term rental homes in the Azure Place community. For current allowances for zoning see link above.
